1964 Opportunities In the Peace Corps

Washington, D. C.—The Peace Corps estimates that it will require at least 9,000 volunteers to meet the requests of host country governments in 1964.

These needs include: 5,000 teachers, 2,000 community development workers, 700 health workers, 600 agricultural technicians and 700 skilled tradesmen, technicians and professional personnel.

The greatest demand is for teachers—3,000 for secondary schools, 1,000 for elementary and 500 for colleges and universities. An additional 500 volunteers are needed for the fields of physical, vocational and adult education.

In the field of health, 500 nurses of all kinds are needed. Another 200 persons will fill posts as medical, laboratory and X-ray technicians, doctors, dentists, sanitarians, etc.

While the demand for agricultural skills cover a wide range of subjects, these skills are most frequently requested: agricultural extension, irrigation, farm mechanics, animal husbandry, agricultural engineering, poultry, dairying and soil conservation.

The Peace Corps is interested in volunteers who are planning to retire and also those eligible for a leave of absence from their present employment.

Applicants are advised to submit an early application if they want to be considered for either a February or June appointment. An application form may be secured from the Peace Corps, Division of Recruiting, Washington, D. C. 20525. Special literature will be sent to those indicating the particular area of their skill and when they would probably be available.

Delta Omega Speaker "In-Bred Go-Power" Essential to Business Leader

By Dick Longo

Carmino A. Rao, Assistant Attorney General for the State of Rhode Island, spoke about "Business and Law" at the opening dinner-meeting of Delta Omega on Monday night, October 7.

After a delicious dinner at the Admiral Inn in Cumberland, Rhode Island, President Lee Johnson welcomed members and introduced Mr. Rao as guest speaker for the evening.

Mr. Rao stressed the important position of the executive in the modern business world. An executive, in Mr. Rao's opinion, "must have the ability to marshal his complete mind; not only his I. Q." He must have, along with the necessary business background, an inbred "go-power" to work hard and the important ability to communicate with co-workers and associates. Interwoven in the admirable executive is his sense of integrity, the factor that inspires loyalty and makes the businessman a success in the true sense of the word.

The members of Delta Omega were impressed by Mr. Rao's frank question and answer period after the official meeting.

Mr. Rao is the Chief Special Counsel to the Attorney General in

Senate Announces Election Rules

By Paul Langello

At a recent Student Senate meeting rules for everyone interested in running for a glass office were set up. There are three offices available: President, Vice-President, and Secretary-Treasurer. The Senior Class has four offices: President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer.

Last Monday petitions were made available in the Student Activities Office. Anyone who has the desire to run for class officer must have one of these petitions signed by at least 35 members of his class. No person may sign more than one petition for any one office. The signed petitions must be returned to the Activities Office no later than Friday, October 11.

On Monday, October 14, the Student Senate will interview all class officer applicants. Pictures and platforms of the candidates must be submitted to the Archway office no later than Friday, October 18. Formal campaigning on campus will begin on Monday, October 21.

Monday, October 28—Freshman Class

Wednesday, October 30—Classes of 1964, 1965, 1966

These dates are the dates that were set up by the Student Senate and they rescind the dates announced last week.

The Student Senate has issued the following rules concerning the elections:

1. All candidates for office must have at least a 2.0 cumulative average (except Freshman).

2. Candidates may not run for more than one office at one time. Candidates may run either on slates or as independents. (Candidates running on a slate must run as a slate).

3. No posters may be placed on trees or fences. Posters must be put on campus only.

The Student Senate will circulate fliers concerning elections. These fliers will be placed in the dorms and read by attendance checkers.

Any questions concerning a candidate's qualifications or campaign rules will be answered by Bob Scott, Student Senate Election Committee Chairman.

Mrs. Hochberg in "Who's Who of American Women"

Mrs. Gertrude Meth Hochberg, Director of Public Relations for Bryant College, has recently been included in the "Who's Who of American Women," a publication which lists many of the country's outstanding women.

The State of Rhode Island and is a partner in the law firm of Rao and Rao.

The next dinner meeting is scheduled for Monday night, November 25, at the Admiral Inn. Mr. Manion, one of the advisors, is planning to join interested members in an Investments Club as a division of D. O. All interested persons are asked to see Mr. Manion about this club.

GLC OPEN HOUSE

Anxious students gather to sign for the fraternity or sorority of their choice at the G.L.C. open house, which was held October 1.

T E's "Fallen Arches" Wins AOX's Campus Follies

By Bill Chamberlain

Amid an impressive display depicting Indian Summer in New England, Alpha Theta Chi's fourth annual Campus Follies began. The display was highlighted by a thirty-five foot white birch tree stretching the entire height of the gym. From above the tree crepe paper streamers extended to the walls, also ornamented with corn stalks and white birch logs.

The Del Tones provided dance music from 8 o'clock to 9:15. During this time the brothers of AOX were busy collecting tickets and serving soft drinks at the refreshment table.

At 9:15 the guests were seated, the house lights dimmed, and the show began. Joe Alfred, President of Alpha Theta Chi, outlined the events of the evening and introduced the master of ceremonies, Richard Merluzzo, former President of AOX. Each fraternity, in cooperation with its sister sorority, staged an original production hoping to win one of the three handsome trophies to be awarded at the close of the evening. The judges were Mrs. Robert Perry, Secretary of Rhode Island Junior Theatres; Miss Lucille Biron, Secretary of the Director of Placement at Bryant College; Mr. August P. LaFrance, Rhode Island Secretary of State; and Mr. Joseph Raso, Alumni Brother of AOX and Chief Accountant for the Rhode Island Office Supply.

Finally, the agonizing wait was over and Joe Alfred was ready to announce the winners. Tau Epsilon Fraternity won the first place trophy, Beta Iota Beta came in second, and Kappa Tau took third place.

TE staged a take off on the Greek myth of Narcissus the youth who fell in love with himself. They called it Fallen Arches. The cast consisted of Larry Walinski, Narcissus; Tom Wallace, Fountain; Bill Carter, Narrator; Jeff Horn, ballet director; John Gunthers,

Senate Planning Winter Weekend

On Friday afternoon of last week the Student Senate assembled to discuss and take preliminary steps in the planning of Winter Weekend.

At this meeting the group selected tentative dates and began organizing the following committees: entertainment, hall, favor, and ticket. Also, they announced that the Winter Weekend committee, consisting of nine members, would meet on Tuesday, October 8, to make further plans for this delightful affair.

Since the Winter Weekend plans are in a premature stage anyone having any opinions or ideas pertaining to the planning of this event should contact a member of the Student Senate.

Newman Club Open House A Success

The Newman Club's Open House last October 3 was a great success. At the Open House many sign-ups were taken after the officers were introduced. A live band entertained from 7 to 9 p.m. The Club is presently organizing some breakfasts and retreats. As soon as the plans for these events are made final, they will be announced and anyone who wishes to attend them is invited.

first ballerina; John Little, Bill Favro, Rick John, Ken LaSalle, forest nymphs; Donna Oox, Kathy Hill, Sue Smith, trees. BIB's second place entry depicted college youths sent to the past (2000 BC) and to the future (2000 AD) by a whacky scientist named professor Von Gansett. It was called The Time Machine. KT's act, called Dances Round The World, had the brothers dancing the Hula, the Can-Can, and the ballet.

Campus Follies, the first major dance of the year, proved to be a fine example for the rest of the year's social functions. The only complaint was that the evening's fun and excitement ended all too quickly.

Over 300 Attend Liberation Dance

by Tony Nobrega

The Liberation Dance, which was attended by more than 300 people, was the official end of freshmen orientation. The dance was given by the Student Senate under the supervision of the Interfaith Council, who did the decorating and supplied the refreshments. Music was furnished by the Tommy Masso Orchestra which was engaged by the Student Senate. The dance was a regular semi-formal affair from 8 to 11, and at 11 the bandleader asked everyone to gather in front of the stage. The band then played an introduction and out onto the stage walked the President of the Senate, Dick Haines. In one hand Dick was holding a beanie and in the other hand he held a proclamation. He then read the proclamation and threw the beanie to the freshmen. The beanie was caught by Edward Whitman, a freshman from Queens, New York. The tossing of the beanie signified the granting of freedom to the freshmen. And so, with the following proclamation, freshmen orientation had ended.

Official Proclamation

To: Freshmen Class 1963
From: Student Senate Office, Vigilante Committee
Subject: Freshmen Liberation

1. BE IT KNOWN that from this 28th day of September in the year of Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-three forth these presents release and relinquish all bonds directly uniting the 1963 Freshmen and the consisting members of the Vigilante Committee.

2. ALL rules governing the conduct and behavior of the freshmen are hereby removed from the annals of the freshmen records.

3. THIS PROCLAMATION becomes effective with the casting of this beanie from my hands to those who this affects.

4. THE VIGILANTES OF 1963 wish upon all of you success in all your endeavors; and may

Castelli Clinches GLC Election

By Barry P. Hertz

Elections were held Monday, September 23, for the '63-'64, officers of the Greek Letter Council. Elected were Pete Castelli, Sigma Lambda Pi, President; Charles Wood, Kappa Tau, Vice-President; and Nancy Manchester, Sigma Iota Beta, Secretary-Treasurer.

The Greek Letter Council is made up of the Presidents of the nine Fraternities, and the nine Sororities. These eighteen members act as the governing body for activities sponsored by the individual organizations.

President Castelli feels this year's members are exceptionally qualified and he is looking forward to a very rewarding year. Already plans are being made for the GLC-Student-Senate sponsored "Winter Weekend" to be held some time in February. Mr. Castelli also wishes to thank the Freshman class for the fine turnout at the GLC open house on Tuesday, October first.

Theta Tau Plans Oct. 23 Dinner-Speaker Meeting

By Bob Brooks

On Wednesday, October 23, 1963 at 6:30 p. m., Theta Tau plans to hold its first Dinner-Speaker Meeting at one of Rhode Island's near-by restaurants.

Information as to the restaurant, the price of the meal, and the guest speaker may be obtained from Donna Weaver, Freshmen Class; Carolyn Conway, Sophomore Class; Olive Burke or myself, Junior Class.

All teacher-education students are invited to attend.

Beta Sigma Chi Announces Personality Ball

By Beverly Samson

One of the biggest annual events at Bryant will be held off-campus for the first time on October 25 at the Grist Mill. It is the fifth annual Personality Ball, sponsored by the Brothers of Beta Sigma Chi. The first semi-formal dance of the year, the Ball will last from 8:00 p. m. till midnight, with music by the Manhattans. Tickets will be sold at the door for this couples-only affair.

On Thursday, October 24, at 7:30 p. m., candidates for Mr. and Miss Personality will be judged in the Bryant Auditorium by four highly qualified local people. One candidate for each title will be selected in advance by each fraternity. On Friday afternoon the students will vote for the candidates of their choice. The results of these two polls will determine the final trophy winners.

So remember the date, October 25. Beta Sigma Chi is counting on you to be there!

your stay here at Bryant be both enjoyable and rewarding. Signed under our hand and seal, this 28th day of September.

Circle K Club

Pres.—Pat Grieco
V. Pres.—Bill Handler
Sec.—Dick Huck
Treas.—Brian Oshrin
Pub. Rel. Chairman—Bob Marcus

The Circle K club is not a social fraternity; it is a service organization for college men operating on the campus and is similar to Kiwanis and other community service clubs. It is a leadership and character building group which serves the campus and community.

The Circle K club is a unique organization. Its unique quality is apparent upon examination of the opportunities which it offers to students, colleges and universities, the community and the nation.

Circle K is an opportunity for college men because it provides a means for the same type of leadership in a college community which service clubs are giving in the business and professional world. It is an opportunity for joint as well as individual participation in many activities for the service of humanity and for campus and community betterment.

Over 10,000 students on some 500 college and university campuses throughout the United States and Canada are now taking an active part in the functions offered by Circle K. Some of these functions are as follows: Campus clean-up and beautification programs, provision of scholarships, promotion of blood donor drives and fund-raising programs for national charity drives, community projects including entertainment of underprivileged children. This sampling is representative of the projects successfully carried out by Circle K clubs but does not reflect the many projects unique to the needs and opportunities on a particular campus.

The Circle K motto is "We build"—building for justice, liberty, democracy and a better world in which to live. Circle K is not merely an organization but a driving force through which leadership for tomorrow is created while making a better college or university community today.

Freshman at Work

Library Notes

The CHESS CLUB had its opening meeting of the semester in the first-level room of the library on October 3d at 3 p. m. Mr. James Ragsdale presided, and organization plans were set up.

A popular book at the library these days is that long time favorite "Campus Cues" by L. Pierson (395). Also being asked for are:

"How to Carry on a Conversation" by G. S. Nutley (177) and

"How to Enjoy Work and Get More Fun Out of Life" by O. A. Battista (177).

Theta Tau graciously sent the Library the arrangement of flowers from its first party, and these have been much enjoyed by users of the library.

Senate Highlights

By Margo Drotter

Now that the Freshmen have been fully oriented to the ways of Bryant College, the members of the Student Senate must concentrate on fulfilling the remainder of their activity calendar.

Next on the agenda is class elections. These will be held on Monday, October 28 for the Freshmen, and Wednesday, October 30 for the classes of '64, '65, and '66. Everyone should vote for the candidate he wants to represent his class. These are responsible positions and therefore you should vote for the candidate you feel is most qualified.

The Student Directories will be distributed on Wednesday, October 9, in the Gym from 11:00-1:00 and 3:00-5:30. Don't forget to stop by and get your copy.

Plans for Winter Weekend are now underway. A meeting is going to be held later this week at which time some definite plans will be made.

Senate attendance is of the utmost importance. Members absent from three meetings in a semester automatically lose their seat in the Senate for the remainder of the semester. Those organizations with two absences thus far are the Art Club and Ledger.

Freshmen Orientation was very successful this year. Compared to the 150 Court summonses given out last year, only 80 were given out this year. The Freshmen are certainly to be commended. The grand finale to the orientation program was the Liberation Dance held on Saturday, September 28. At this time all Freshmen were liberated from the bonds of Vigilante persecution.

WELCOME, FROSH!!

Association News
American Marketing

By Charlotte Kenney

The Bryant Collegiate Chapter of the American Marketing Association opened its doors to new members October 1 at an evening speaker meeting. Mr. George Bates, adviser, introduced the speaker, Professor Bowman of URI who is an active member of the newly formed Providence Chapter of the A. M. A. Professor Bowman said that after the Providence Chapter gets on its feet, it will most probably be able to assist our own Chapter in obtaining speakers, films, and arranging field trips.

A special project to raise money for worthwhile causes is forthcoming. The Association will give to each Bryant student, for a 50-cent donation to the club, a "Campus Pact" kit. There is a "Campus Pact" made for women and one

MASQUERS

By Bill Chamberlain

The Masquers' second meeting of this semester was held on October 1. The most important product of the meeting was the decision concerning the first production that we will stage this year. The play is a 3-act riotous melodrama called Caught in the Villain's Web or More Sinned Against Than Sinning.

The play is in the tradition of the old, 19th Century theatre. There is a black-hearted villain, handlebar mustache and all, there is a virile hero whose hobby is growing stinkweeds, and of course, there is the sweet-as-sugar heroine—a white cloaked nurse. The play concerns the trials and tribulations of Felicity Fair, the heroine, at the hands of Ceril Bothingwell, the villain. Of course, Malvern Lockfield, the hero, saves the day just in the nick of time. Sound ridiculous? It is, but it's also a riot.

Between the acts there will be feature skits. These skits will be in a 19th Century vein in harmony with the play. The exact nature of these spots is still indefinite, but each will be a song or dance arrangement. A few surprises are also in store.

Castings for the play and the skits are open to all students. The dates of tryout will be posted on the bulletin boards around school.

The production is scheduled for some time in November. Watch the bulletin boards and this column for an exact date, and then come to see Caught in the Villain's Web and enjoy yourself.

Movie Schedule

October 16

"Thief of Bagdad"

Starring Steve Reeves, Georgia Moll, Arturo Dominici, Edy Vessel, George Chamarat, this movie is a fantasy taken from the Arabian Nights. When the beautiful princess must have a magical blue rose to restore her health, the thief (Steve Reeves) conquers every obstacle to win the rose—and the princess.

"The Big Show"

Starring Esther Williams, Cliff Robertson, Nehemiah Persoff, David Nelson. A double-barreled story combines the thrills of breath-taking circus acts with the conflicts in the lives of a circus family. When faulty aerial equipment fails, Josef, the favorite son, takes the blame for his father and is sent to prison. His release unfolds a powerful drama, pitting sons against a domineering father, and brother against brother.

Man Will Board
Plane from Car

One of the most exciting stunts at the National Air Show to be held at the North Central Airport in Lincoln Saturday, October 19, will be the transfer of a man from a car to a plane in flight.

The Pawtucket Rotary Club, which is sponsoring the show to aid its charity fund, announced that two U. S. air champions, Harold Krier and Charles Hillard, will team up for the event.

Mr. Krier will fly a sport monoplane with a 10-foot rope ladder on the underside.

Mr. Hillard will take to the wheel of a speeding car and "precision drive it". When he gets up to a speed of 100 miles an hour, a stunt man will transfer from the car to the rope ladder of the airplane.

Some 15,000 persons are expected to turn out for the show.

The day's program will start at 11 a.m. but the main show will go on in the afternoon, starting at 2 o'clock.

Third Polio Clinic

Type III oral polio vaccine will be given out at clinics on Sunday, October 20. A clinic will be held at Andrews House of Brown University for the community. There will also be the regular clinic at Hope High School.

All students are urged to participate in the program.

Canadian Ballet
Coming to Providence

The first Providence appearance of the world-famous National Ballet of Canada will take place on Friday evening, October 18th, at Veterans Memorial Auditorium.

The repertoire ranges from the Classics to the Can-Can in "Offenbach in the Underworld". A new ballet by Zachary Solov, "Allegresse", will have its North American debut in Providence.

Tickets are available at Avery Piano Company, 256 Weybosset Street, Providence, Rhode Island.

HERE AND THERE

Bryant Professor Conducts Lecture Series. David M. Brooks, Jr., assistant professor of speech and English at Bryant College, is conducting a course on "Effective Business Writing" for the American Savings and Loan Institution of Providence. This course, which began Monday evening, September 23, will continue each Monday evening for twelve weeks.

Bryant Official Appointed Aide for United Fund Drive. Dr. Charles H. Russell, vice president for academic affairs at Bryant College, was named chairman for colleges and universities for the United Fund Drive which will run from October 10 to November 26.

CAMPUS BEAT

"Back to the Books"

Take a deep breath.

There's a touch of fall in the air!

And so, another summer fades away . . . Snapshots look good, but when that tan fades and peels, summer is gone.

The first weeks on campus are usually fun. There's always a lot of exciting things to do . . . meeting old friends, buying books, getting unpacked, surveying the date situation, and generally putting things in order for the year ahead.

However, that day of reckoning is soon at hand and without warning a spot quiz or paper or both are in the offering.

Comfort is the first consideration in the classroom. Nobody can expect a man to concentrate on electronics, history or even Shakespeare, if he's disturbed by uncomfortable or poorly fitting clothes. On the other hand, the sloppy look is out. Many colleges have even gone so far as to insist on ties and jackets in the classroom.

The first item on the comfort agenda is to be certain that you're wearing the right size. The gain or loss of just a few pounds over the summer can mean a great difference in fit.

Nothing is more uncomfortable or can ruin your appearance faster than a poorly fitting shirt. Ask your local haberdasher to measure, or you can try the "Do it yourself" approach. Check your neck size with a tape measure. If it measures 15 inches then your collar is size 15 just as 15½ inches denotes a size 15½. If you come up with something in between, say 15¾, choose the next larger size which would be 16.

Sleeve lengths are determined by measuring from the bone at the base of your neck, out across your shoulder and down the arm to the wristbone . . . where the shirt cuff should end—showing about ½ to 1 inch beneath the suit sleeve. Hold your arm out from your body and slightly flexed when you measure. Incidentally, about sixty percent of all men wear their suit and shirt sleeves too long!

Sportshirts and dress shirts rated high up on the comfort and good looks list this fall include the new Van Heusen "417 V-Taper Collection". These Ivy-style shirts are really cut to fit with almost six inches taken out of either side of the shirt. There's just enough room for a really deep breath or an extra long morning stretch, but never any unsightly, uncomfortable bunching and bagging about the waistline . . . trim and neat all the way!

So, pick your classroom clothes for comfort as well as style! You may not make Dean's list, but you'll look awfully good while you work at it.

Have any questions about dress? Write to me care of your newspaper.

Inside the Game:

Bart Starr Makes The Packers Go

By Dave Barber

Every championship team has them: the egotists, the noisy backslappers, and the stereotyped modest star. The Green Bay Packers generally are regarded as professional football's greatest team, and therefore are allowed more than their share of these characters. There's Vince Lombardi, the coach they call "the Old Man" and who would take credit for anything but the settling of Green Bay; glad-handers like guard Jerry Kramer; and the friendly type like fullback Jim Taylor.

The Packers also have their "quiet guy", Bart Starr. As the quarterback, Starr ought to be one of Green Bay's flashiest players. Instead, Starr perhaps is the dullest. He rarely ever generates adverse excitement by fumbling, or by having a pass intercepted.

But Starr is the guy who makes the Packers—The Champions—go. He also is the team's offensive brain.

A bushy-haired, six-foot-one, 200-pounder, hailing out of Mobile, Alabama, who in his Sophomore year at the University of Alabama looked like its best quarterback in history, Starr took the Crimson Tide to two straight bowl games, but injured his back during spring practice and spent most of his senior year on the bench.

Starr doesn't consistently gamble or shoot for the long passes like John Unitas. He probably couldn't if he wanted to, since Lombardi employs a methodical system that indicates he is running the show. This is what makes Starr so valuable to the Packers. He doesn't pass much but he kills you with his accuracy. Last season, Starr's percentage of pass completions (178 out of 285 for 62.5%) was the fifth highest in National Football League History. Moreover, Starr rarely fumbles and had only nine passes intercepted all last season.

Take the Packer's last two championship games. In 1961, Hornung arrived in a private plane from Army Reserve duty in Kansas and scored a record 19 points. He then spent all winter posing for cigarette and shirt ads as the championship game hero. Starr paritically went unnoticed. "ALL" Bart did was pass for three of Green Bay's four touchdowns and complete 10 of 17 passes for 164 yards—"That's All"!!!

This writer (being a fan of Bart Starr) predicts that Bart Starr and associates will go on to become once again—Champions.

Getting back to the other championship game held in New York, Bart led the Packers in one of the coldest and windiest games of football history, completing 8 of 22 passes while Y. A. Tittle was complaining of the weather.

Since I have made a prediction, I might just as well stick my neck out and predict Bryant's Intramural Football winners.

Table Tennis Talk

By Bill Chamberlain

It is very gratifying to see more and more students becoming interested in table tennis. The game room is becoming a popular place to gather, to meet new friends, and to play a friendly game of table tennis. Students are fast becoming aware of the relaxing quality of table tennis. A good game helps relieve one's tensions after a tough accounting test or after completion of a complicated homework assignment.

Plans for the coming table tennis tournaments are beginning to solidify. The various fraternities are selecting the members of their team for the interfraternity table tennis tournament soon to be held. Students are practicing for the singles contest and others are pairing up for the doubles battles. Still others are sharpening up their abilities in anticipation of the tryouts for the Bryant intercollegiate table tennis team. Excitement is beginning to grow.

Amid all this practicing for the various tournaments, many students who do not wish to compete

Basketball Coach Announces Date Of Tryouts

VARSITY BASKETBALL TRYOUTS begin in Bryant Gym on Tuesday, October 22, for both varsity and jr. varsity teams.

All interested male students are invited to participate. Coach Shannon has said, "In all fairness I feel I should mention that many of those who do report will not survive the 'cuts' that will be necessary; however," he went on to say, "I hope this will not discourage any student from trying out." At this time every position on the squad is reported to be open.

To members of the Student body who are not on either the varsity or jr. varsity squads Coach Shannon says, "I urge your encouragement and support by faithful attendance at as many games as possible."

One of Bryant's primary objectives is to see that those affiliated with the Varsity Basketball program remain alert to the reputation and prestige of our College and will in no way act in such manner as to discredit themselves or the College. All who attend are urged to show consideration for our guests and officials regardless of the progress of the contest.

Intramural Tennis Matches Underway

By Ray Tramont

The Bryant College Student Athletic Director, Bob Else, announced the commencement of the 1963-64 intramural tennis matches last Friday.

This is the first time in many years that Bryant College has offered tennis as an intramural sport to the student body.

The matches will take place from September 30 to October 23 at which time the wards will be presented to the winners.

The participation in the sport consists of 16 girls and 17 boys (two more boys are needed to complete the matches).

KT-6 BEX-0

In a hard fought game that wasn't decided until the last play of the game, Kappa Tau defeated Beta Sigma Chi 6-0.

After battling to a 0-0 first half, K T scored the only touchdown of the game on an eight yard pass from Charlie Wood to "S. J." Adelman on the first set of downs when they had the ball in the second half.

The true difference in the game turned out to be the solid defense of K T by Curly Calamari, Gary Van Wie, and Jack Ray. The outstanding goal-line stand which the defense upheld with ten seconds left in the game secured the victory for Kappa Tau.

Wanted

Students are needed to serve on the Circulation Staff of THE ARCHWAY. To qualify you must have a free period before 10:00 on Fridays. Contact—Bill Piccerelli, Editor, or Ray Mellilo, Circulation Manager.

There will be over 30 matches and the matches are to be governed by the "single elimination process". The matches have to be played by a specific date. No particular official must be present at the matches. Each match consists of three sets. The matches will be posted on the bulletin board in front of the gym.

Each winner has to report his victory to the College Intramural Office. The finalists will be awarded according to the newly incorporated Point Award System.

Any court belonging to the college may be used from 7:00 a. m. until dark on Monday thru Thursday.

ALUMNI NEWS

Three Bryant men have recently been certified as public accountants.

William T. McDermott '66, is a senior accountant with Comery, Davison & Company in Providence. While at Bryant he was an Archway staff member and brother of Phi Sigma Nu.

Ovid L. Monacelli, Jr. '58, is associated with Kilberg, Labush & Company in Providence. He has completed post-graduate courses at Boston University.

Clement T. Lambert '59 passed the required examinations in Massachusetts. He is associated with Peat, Marwick & Mitchell in Worcester. He resides in Milford, Massachusetts.

The Executive Director of the urban renewal program in Taunton, Massachusetts, is Raymond J. Carney '38. Since 1942 he has been an executive with the National Silver Company and owner and general manager of the Rosemar Silver Company in Taunton.

Raymond is married to Marjorie Rannacher '38 and they have a son, Richard.

The Bridgeport Hydraulic Company has named Raymond R. Stephen '48 to the post of Personnel Director. Since 1957 he has been personnel manager of Flexible Tubing Corp., Guilford Connecticut, and its subsidiary, Kenyon Instrument Company of Brewster, New York.

The Fall River Trust Company has promoted Robert Hathaway, Jr. '49 to auditor. He has been associated with the bank since graduation.

Football Officials

These are the officials that will be directing the do's and don'ts of touch-football for this season. C. Zayat will be handling the sorority volleyball. Check the center bulletin board located outside the gym for further details concerning time and date your favorite team will play. See you all at the new Bryant College Athletic Field each afternoon from Monday thru Thursday for the next six weeks.

First Row: C. Zayat, R. Mondo, R. Else, Std. Ath. Dir., F. Swintak. Second Row: W. Favro, R. Tellier, and A. Silva. Missing is D. Barber.

Beta's Mascot

Beta Sigma Chi has the first mascot of all the fraternities. Sitting among all their trophies is BEX, Beta's mascot.

Beta Sigma Chi News

By Paul Langello

Two weeks from today BETA SIGMA CHI will hold its Personality Ball. BETA is now very busy making the final arrangements for the Ball. This year's Personality Ball, the first semi-formal dance of the year, will be held on Friday, October 25, at the Grist Mill. Everyone is looking forward to seeing which fraternity-sponsored couple will be this year's Mr. and Miss Personality. Tickets will be available at the door. Ad books will be distributed at the dance.

On Saturday, November 2, BETA will give its first party of the year for the children at St. Aloysius Orphanage. Anyone who wishes to come to this party may do so. A bus will leave from the front of Gardner Hall at a time to be announced later.

BETA invites everyone interested in the fraternity to come to its Smoker which will be held on Thursday night October 31. At the Smoker all the Brothers and advisors are introduced, pledge rules are announced, and entertainment is provided. Also, refreshments will be served at the Smoker. Sign-ups for BETA's pledge interviews will be taken at this Smoker.

BETA Sports:
Bowling: Won three out of four matches.

Tennis: Reid Cameron won his first scheduled match.

At a recent meeting BETA SIGMA CHI voted in a new member. His name is "Bex" and he is BETA's mascot. "Bex" is a cute little brown and black puppy that will grow with the fraternity.

Kappa Delta Kappa

Bouquets are in order for all the twinkle-toes in Tau Epsilon. Those boy ballerinas, our brothers, pirouetted away with first place in Campus Follies Saturday night. Of course, though, it was the stunning KDK scenery that really stole the show!

All the sisters are busy with plans for our smoker, which will be held on November 12. Make a note of the date now and be sure to attend. In order to raise money for our smoker, we will soon be selling chocolate bars. So please start saving your money and conserving your appetites.

We are also keeping active in sports this year and plan to have teams for volleyball, bowling, and basketball. Even if we can't play too well, we certainly try hard enough; and it is the best way we know to keep physically fit.

Now that party season is in full swing, I would just like to caution everyone about a deadly disease that is sweeping the country. BEWARE OF FLIP-TOP THUMB!

Tau Epsilon

By Dick Lovelace

Would you like to relax? Would you like a vacation? Would you like to take a Bermuda Cruise?

The brothers of Tau Epsilon Fraternity are making all of this possible. On October 18 someone is going to win an All Expense Paid Trip to Bermuda for two. Yes, the brothers of Tau Epsilon are now holding their annual raffle for the benefit of the John L. Allan Award.

Tickets can be obtained from any brother of Tau Epsilon for the small donation of 25 cents per ticket or 1 dollar for a book of five.

As usual Tau Ep has taken great interest in the athletic program at Bryant. TE is represented in all sports. Snake Gutherz is leading the forward wall of the football team which is defending its title as "CHAMPIONS OF BRYANT COLLEGE." The bowling team led by Larry Walinski is putting their bid in for top position along with the tennis team led by Bill "Rajmal" Carter.

On October 18, TE participated in the Greek Letter Council's Open House, which attracted approximately 500 freshmen, eager to join one of the fraternities or sororities on the campus. Tau Epsilon's eye-catching display induced over 120 freshmen to sign-up for the smoker which will be held November 12.

By Carol Egglestone

Hi!
It was sure good to see so many of you at the Open House, and we certainly look forward to seeing all of you again at our Smoker on Tuesday, October 15. The Smoker will be held upstairs in the Student Union. After we tell you a little about Sigma's history and activities and answer any questions you may have, we will all go down to the auditorium and enjoy a buffet and a mixer with our brothers, Phi Sigma Nu. The music for the mixer will be provided by a live band, and we're sure a good time will be had by everyone who attends.

If you were unable to attend Open House, and therefore did not receive an invitation, you are still welcome to attend our Smoker.

We want to thank the following sisters who did a fine job of representing Sigma in Campus Follies last Saturday:

Pat Fardie, Betty Ann Coray, Sandy McDonald, Shelia McCabe, Marolyn Fascio, Peggy Ahern, Salley Beresford, Bev. DeAngelis and Bev. Levinson.

Congratulations are also in order to our brothers on winning their first two football games. Keep it up!

Beta Iota Beta

Turk

The brothers of BETA IOTA BETA met many freshmen at the GIC Open House, October 1. We hope to see you at our smoker November 7.

Congratulations to Jay Smith for winning first prize in our raffle. Friendly Caterers was awarded the second prize. Thank's to all those who purchased tickets—better luck next year!!!

Wayne Huek and Chy Basso will represent BIB and SIB in this year's competition for Mr. and Miss Personality. Good Luck, WALLY and CHY!!!

Coach Barry Steinfink's rugged football drills paid off in BIB's first game against AOX. A fabulous finger-tip catch by fleet-footed Jim Villa scored the team's winning touchdown. The final score was 6 to 0.

Joe Scarpelli led BIB's bowling team to a split decision against AO in the first match of the season. We're expecting to lead the league this year as we have done in the past.

Brother Bill Bedgio is living it up in Columbia, South Carolina, where he's stationed for the next 6 months. See you in six, Bill!!!

Plans have been laid for a BIB and SIB ski trip to Mount Snow. Where's the snow????

Delta Sigma Chi

By Sue Ceppetelli

Trophies, trophies, and more trophies. That was the setting of the Bryant College Auditorium on Tuesday, October 1. It was G.L.C. Open House, and each fraternity and sorority introduced itself to interested freshmen. Our many trophies, along with scrapbooks and other sorority mementos, made an excellent showing. All the sisters of Delta Sigma Chi sincerely hope that each girl who signed our register will attend our Smoker on November 5. We're looking forward to meeting you.

DEX has recently accepted three social pledges to the sorority:

Jill Greenhalgh
Carole McLaughlin
Diane Vaughn

A poster party was held last Friday night, and the posters seen around the campus announcing AOX's Campus Follies definitely showed the artistic ability of the brothers and sisters.

The sisters have organized a volleyball team; and although it is our first try at it, we're optimistic about the coming season.

Delta's Diary: Diane is busy traveling . . . There had to be an uninvited guest . . . Carole likes 120 . . . Deltas are saying, "Clancy, save two . . . Q5 . . . Oh Dee! . . . It's all over . . . Fifty cents . . . Ellie, be quiet . . . and uh huh."

Monte Carlo Night
On November 2

By Arthur English

At 8:00 o'clock on November 2 in the Bryant College Auditorium, ALPHA OMICRON FRATERNITY will present their night of legalized gambling, MONTE CARLO NIGHT. The theme this year is The Riviera, and seven-card stud poker, roulette, bird cage, show-down poker, wheels, and other games of chance and percentage will be in order for the sporting Bryant student.

For a low admission price each individual receives $1000 in script money and access to the game room. There he may gamble this money on any of the gambling devices available, the object, of course, being to beat the A.O. dealers and win as much money as possible. At the close of this legalized gambling night, you may bid

Phi Sig News

By Fred Robinson

The Phi Sigma Nu Football Team rolled out to victory in their first two games by defeating Tau Epsilon 13 to 6 and Beta Sigma Chi 2 to 0. Joe Finelli scored the first touchdown by intercepting a pass in the second half of the Tau Epsilon game. The second touchdown resulted from a pass from Barry Siegal to Walt Coutu. Dick Smith kicked the point after. The Beta Sig game was won with a safety made by Dick Battista and Mike Macnamara.

Phi Sigma Nu wants to extend their greetings to:

1. Dick Battista
2. Lloyd Cahoon
3. Joe DeAngelis
4. Guido Improta
5. Al Mendosa
6. Walt Osterman
7. John Roach
8. Dick Smith

as the first social pledges of the fraternity.

Attention Independents

The Phi Sigma Nu Smoker will be held in the Bryant Gym on Tuesday, October 15, at 7:00. Entertainment will be presented and Refreshments will be served after an informal meeting between the brothers and the prospective pledges of Phi Sigma Nu Fraternity. To highlight the evening, there will be a mixer with the sisters and the prospective pledges of our sister sorority, Sigma Iota Chi.

News of
Chi Gamma Iota

By Jim Senese

The brothers of Chi Gam want to thank very much the people who turned out for our Hawaiian Luau — even our ivy covered neighbors. Smythe was having a heckova time at the door passing out free souvenirs.

K. T. and A. O. X., beware!! It looks like the softball champs are going to get themselves a football trophy this year. Bibber Martin and Pebbles Bartells seem to be in a quandary trying to decide which nine of the brothers to start. Although the competition amongst the brothers is keen, it looks like "Mean Harry Mikaelian" and Brutal Bill Demos" have starting positions tied down.

Chi Gam got a real fine looking group of guys signed-up at last week's Open House of the G. L. C. Out of brotherly love, Chi Gam persuaded some of the Campus Queens to sign Phi U's sheet.

Side note: Whoever heard of Greeks patronizing a Portuguese establishment?

Dino McKiernan, the regular Chi Gam reporter, is recovering from a case of minus typewriteritis since Nancy moved to New Hampshire. Dino is also supporting a finger-full of fancy needlework. That'll teach him to stand too close to the razor.

Until the next issue, Bottz.

on prizes auctioned off by the Fraternity. The bidding is usually spirited, but there are so many prizes that almost everyone walks off with something. This year, as in the past, there will be such prizes as theater tickets, large stuffed animals, cameras, sports equipment, jewelry, grooming devices for men and women, meals at the best restaurants, and many many more. Every girl will receive a prize and the guys bringing the gal may get her in for half price. Music and refreshments will also be provided, so if gambling and fun are your cup of tea, MONTE CARLO NIGHT on the Riviera will be a night that you'll remember always. See you there.

Campus Follies
By AOX

By Bob Armstrong

Alpha Theta Chi presented its 4th Annual CAMPUS FOLLIES last Saturday in the Auditorium. A fine band provided music throughout the evening. Some of the stunts had a real "professional touch." The Brothers wish to thank all the competitors for their strong showing. A list of the Stunt Night winners is included in another part of this issue.

The AOX SMOKER will be held Nov. 5. AOX is going all out to make this night a memorable one. All interested men are cordially invited to attend the Smoker.

Harry Erickson and Charlie Andrad are the frat's entries for the tennis championship. Best of Luck, Men. "Y.A." Erickson will also quarterback the AOX football team this year. The question is can "Y.A." stand all that pressure?

Bill Squizzero (Squiz to his friends) returned from Texas last week. For the past three months he's been a member of the Air National Guard. Welcome back Squiz.

The frat sisters are DEX. Delta Sigma Chi is headed by president Marie Rotondo. Our sisters have some new and interesting ideas which should prove of value to both the fraternity and the sorority.

The G. L. C. open house last week gave the frat an opportunity to present itself to the freshmen. Many of the Brothers were seen talking to the frosh and explaining to them the trophies, scrap book, and other functions of the frat. The Brothers wish to thank the many freshmen who were "eager" to sign up for the smoker, Nov. 5.

The "new girl" that wandered into the lives of Tarzan and Zeke has "wandered out" again. If seen, please report her location at once to any of the Brothers.

Sigma Lambda
Pi News

The brothers of Sigma Lambda Pi Fraternity wish to congratulate their president Pete Castelli on his recent election to president of the Greek Letter Council. We are sure that Pete is capable and worthy of the position and that he will do an excellent job as president.

Work on SNO' QUEEN is progressing on schedule. The brothers of Sigma Lambda Pi are directing their efforts toward making the 25th SNO' QUEEN dance an event that will remain in the minds of the people who attend for years.

The brothers of Sigma Lambda Pi wish to thank the sisters of Beta Sigma Gamma for their help in the skit on stunt night.

Sigma Lambda Theta

By Gerri Huck

An exciting day is being planned for Theta. We're going to turn Western style and spend an afternoon horseback riding. Since some of the sisters have never been on horses; it should prove interesting.

We are also arranging to do some community Red Cross work at the Providence branch and help out at a local hospital. This is in addition to the annual party at our orphanage.

Seven new social pledges were voted into our sorority: Greta Ferguson, Billie Weinrich, Jill Parkin, Jean Colwell, Linda Sloan, Peggy Spain, and Louise Ruvalo. They're already doing a great job for Theta and are eager to start participating in the intramural sports.

The sisters of Theta would like to congratulate Arleen McCann on her recent engagement.

We're looking forward to helping the brothers with their plans for Personality Ball. Hope to see everyone there!
